PROJECT NO. 147

"Sacred Heart Convent"
St. Charles,
Missouri.

The Convent of the Sacred Heart was established in St. Charles by Phillipine Dushesne, a French Nun, who came to St. Charles, Mo., in the year 1818.

In the same year a little log cabin was erected to house the Nuns and used as a Convent School.

In 1836 this building was erected, and in 1926 was remodeled to some extent, an entrance porch being added.

It is a two and one-half story brick building with high basement. Original building, as above stated, was remodeled.
